Jazz is a very handsome, black, 7 year old tomcat.

He is a timid boy, who will need a hands-off owner that will allow him to build his confidence at his own pace. Once he is comfortable around you, he will allow a gentle head rub and will lean into you asking for more, however he does struggle to overcome his initial nervousness and will hiss to begin with.

Jazz is to be the only cat in the home and will need access to the outdoors. He will need a calm home, with adults only, due to his timid nature. We are confident that with time and a patient owner, Jazz's confidence will grow, and he has shown us what a sweet and affectionate boy he can be with a little patience.

This assessment is ongoing and aspects may change as time goes by.

I'd prefer an adult only household

I'm a shy guy; I'll need time to settle

I need to be able to go outside and explore

I'd prefer to be the only cat in a home
