Missy is a 4 year old Persian cross. Her personality matches her name, and she is definitely a troublesome little madam.

She enjoys short periods of attention on her terms but can also be fairly vocal and certainly lets you know when she is unhappy. She will need a home that has the time and patience to keep on top of her grooming, and to introduce her to this very slowly and positively.

Missy spends much of her time snuggled up in her hidey hole in her scratching post and is looking for an adult only home. She will need to be the only pet, with access to the outdoors. A quiet home with experience handling more challenging cats would bring out the best in her personality.

This assessment is ongoing and aspects may change as time goes by.
