Bridget is 3 years old and is a gentle and loving young lady with a kind and playful nature. She is a fantastic confident cat who is always ready and waiting for attention. She loves rubbing against your legs and receiving belly rubs.

She is not overly keen on being picked up, so will need owners that understand this, although she does allow it for short periods of time.

Bridget has lived with another cat previously so may be able to again depending on compatibility.

She could live with children of primary school age and above, as long as they understood not to try and pick her up. She will also need access to the outside, so no homes on main roads or near railway lines.

This assessment is ongoing and aspects may change as time goes by.
