Alistair is a great cat full of energy and mischief.

He is very playful and always entertaining himself one way or another. He was a little nervous when he first came in, but within a matter of days he realised he could trust us and started showing off his cheeky character.

Alistair is litter trained, can use his cat flap, enjoys being groomed and will push into the brush.

He could be rehomed with another cat who is confident and playful. Due to his beautiful friendly nature we feel he could live with a home with any ages children but children would need to be cat savvy as he has been through trauma in his life.
