Mary is a very affectionate and loving girl who craves attention and fuss from anyone she can get it off. She is always rubbing up against her glass to get your attention and rubs up against you when you go to her. She is always walking around your feet and loves sitting on your lap to be stroked.

She doesn't mind being brushed but can be sensitive to her tail being touched. She is quite territorial of her bed and belongings on her inside pod but not in her outside run. Mary has not seemed too interested in toys whilst being at our centre; she is more interested in receiving plenty of cuddles.

Mary is looking for a home with children ages 10+.
