Black and tan

Latoya is a wonderful and playful dog who is a pleasure to spend time with. She adores her toys and will happily play with you and come for lots of fuss and attention. Latoya is quite chunky so would need an owner who has experience with bigger dogs as she can be quite mouthy when she is excited. Latoya is a big softy who will make a wonderful addition to the right home.

I'd prefer not to live with a cat
