Cookie came to the centre when sadly her owner died. She soon won the heart of everyone with her loving personality and her polite walking manner. Cookie loves going out for walks and although she can pull with excitement initially she very quickly settles down and walks perfectly. She also enjoys having a fuss, she is very calm and gentle and just loves to sit with you. Cookie would benefit from being the only dog in the household, as she likes to have all the attention for herself. She does have her silly moments and enjoys playing with her toys but overall she is a lovely, gentle girl who would love to be someone's companion (children 7yrs+).
